Drinks menu

In brandy
there's freedom
and courage!

In wine lies wisdom
and truth!

Right.
In water I see
only tadpoles
and frogs...

Şarba is a rare local grape and raising a glass of Romanian wine is customary at Hanul Manuc. So, as we say 'round here,... "dip your lip, then sip and sip; then get a grip so you won't trip." The classic Odobeşti Şarba actually descends from the Romanian Tămâioasă grape, only Şarba lui Manuc really stands apart. It has replaced the rose, basil and linden tree notes common to the usual Şarba with citrus ones—mainly lime and grapefruit. But the result is so balanced – and this is not an empty boast—than it actually can be paired with any kind of meat, not just poultry or fish. A surprising wine that you absolutely have to discover.

Beer connoisseurs will discover in Manuc's House Beer something rare and forgotten – the secret of good and settled taste, patience of the malt while fermenting, patience of the beer mug being iced, the lad's patience when pouring it into the glass leaving two fingers of snow white foam behind. Out of this patience comes your impatience, dear guest, to thirstily taste this noble liquid.

Directiva Consiliului CE 89/622/CEE:
Tutunul dăunează grav sănătății

Get me an „English Frappe“, though „frappe“ is not an English word, my boy.
I should know, I was ashore
in Portsmouth once.
